As you can see from this, these are extremely positive results. From last years feedback, our actions were to develop home learning (up by 3%), review after school clubs (up by 7%) and to continue our zero tolerance on bullying (up by 7%). This is an excellent result and one in which we very proud. We will continue to ensure that the all-round education that your children receive is of the highest order to try and improve on these even further. Thank you for your comments also, we have used some of these on the new display in the foyer.
